New Generation Dispensing Systems

The new generation dispensing systems feature a cabinet interior and unique dispensing valve that optimize space utilization. You get twice as much product in the same amount of space as traditional bag-in-box systems. Larger capacity means you spend less time refilling dispensers. Best of all, it means fewer complaints about empty dispensers.

Traditional Bag-in-box Dispenser

The box and shelf it sits on are surrounded by empty space.

Old style dispensing valves use a long tube that wastes even more space.

The Grand Touch[®] Dispenser

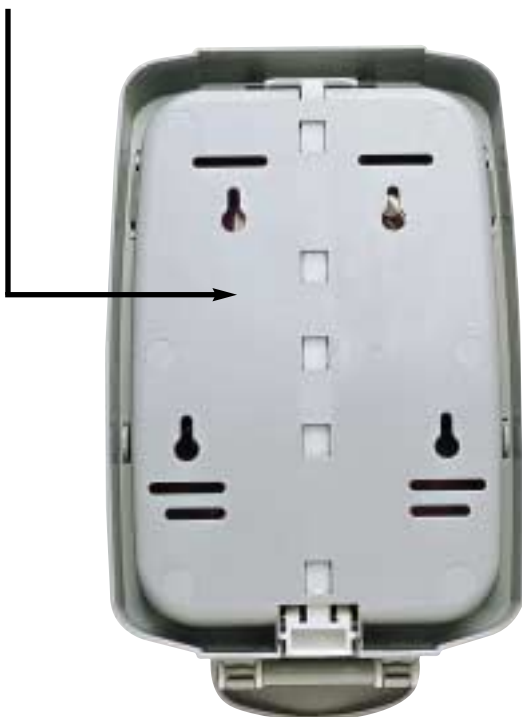

There's no box to waste valuable space. Bag makes full use of interior space.

The tube style valve is replaced with a new generation valve positioned on the front of the bag.
