

Chris Bohrisch Promoted to Vice President of Ontario/Los Angeles for WAXIE Sanitary Supply

May 27, 2009

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SAN DIEGO, CA -- WAXIE Sanitary Supply, America's largest family-owned distributor of sanitary maintenance supplies, is pleased to announce that Chris Bohrisch has been promoted to Vice President General Manager of its Ontario and Los Angeles divisions.

Chris began his career with WAXIE 25 years ago as a Sales Consultant for the San Diego division. He has held several positions since then including National Accounts Manager and General Manager where he played an instrumental part in gaining high profile accounts for the San Diego division. Chris has been able to lead his team in securing some of WAXIE's largest customers.

In addition to his ability to continuously grow this mature market year after year, Chris displayed a strong commitment to foster the development and growth of his people as well, making Chris a well rounded and successful leader with a proven track record. This record of accomplishment makes him a perfect candidate to lead WAXIE's largest distribution center.

Chris assumed his new position on May 1, 2009.
