SEATTLE, WA, May 11, 2018 – WAXIE Sanitary Supply held a Sales Award Ceremony on February 9th at the beautiful and inspiring Seattle Aquarium located at Pier 59 in downtown Seattle, Washington.

People from all over the Pacific Northwest gathered at the festivities to celebrate several of WAXIE's regional branch achievements. WAXIE Seattle leadership along with Chairman & CEO, Charles Wax; President & COO, Jeff Roberts; and Executive Vice President of the Intermountain Region, Clint Hunter, paid tribute to the sales accomplishments of the vastly talented teams representing the offices of Anchorage and Fairbanks, Alaska; Portland, Oregon; and Seattle, Washington.

WAXIE Seattle's Hannah Cho and Kevin Getman were named 2017 Co-Sales Consultants of the Year. Each gave inspirational and heartfelt speeches and acknowledged their families and loved ones for the support and drive to succeed. They also recognized the WAXIE family and company leadership for the opportunities they have been given to service WAXIE's customers along with the tremendous support of their operations team.

At the conclusion of the evening Charles Wax surprised the attendees by naming Kevin Getman WAXIE's Chairman Award Winner for 2017.

The Chairman Award recognizes one of the nine WAXIE Branch Sales Consultants of the Year as the top overall sales performer. With his wife Kelsey in attendance, Kevin gave a passionate and moving acceptance speech by expressing his gratitude, appreciation, and love for the organization as well as the unconditional love and support from his wife, Kelsey.

"Kevin is most deserving of this award," said Charles Wax, Chairman, CEO. "He epitomizes the essence of a true professional who is passionate about servicing WAXIE's customers. We are honored to have him on our team."
