

SERVING CUSTOMERS SINCE 1945 – WAXIE SANITARY SUPPLY CELEBRATES 60TH ANNIVERSARY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SAN DIEGO, CA -- WAXIE Sanitary Supply is in a giving mood. The reason: 60 years in the business. To celebrate its 60th Anniversary, WAXIE has given back to the communities it serves by making charitable contributions to local organizations.

These contributions, which were made in April, are just one way the company is saying “thank you” to the customers and communities the company has been fortunate enough to do business with for the last 60 years.

Few would have predicted when the company first made its humble start in October 1945 as San Diego Janitor Supply and Chemical Company that it would grow into the industry leader it is today. Original owners Harry and Morris Wax made a commitment to make customer service their primary focus, and this decision has been the key to longevity and success.

The company’s motto is “Serving the Customer is the Focus of Everything We Do.”

Today, Morris’ son Charles Wax is the President of the company and he continues the customer service legacy of his father. “We need to stay responsive to our customers’ needs and focus on the future. And we are willing to invest in the future.” A willingness to invest in the future has allowed the company to become America’s largest family owned distributor of sanitary supplies and equipment.

According to Charles, “If they were alive today my father and uncle would be amazed at how much we have grown and changed, but they would not be surprised of the fact that our principles of excellent customer service have remained unchanged for sixty years.”

The commitment to customer service is the primary reason the company has doubled in size in the last ten years. At that time, on the occasion of WAXIE’s 50th Anniversary, Morris summed up the sentiment of the WAXIE family when he said, “It’s been marvelous to watch the growth of our company. It has exceeded all of my expectations.”
