

WAXIE Sanitary Supply Relocates Denver, CO Operation

March 1, 2012

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AURORA, CO -- WAXIE Sanitary Supply, America's largest independently-owned distributor of sanitary maintenance supplies, is pleased to announce plans to move its Denver, Colorado location in March of 2012. The new 75,000 square foot facility will be larger and more modern and is within close proximity to our current location in Denver, CO.

For WAXIE, the new location means improved customer service, upgraded infrastructure, an enhanced working environment for employees, customers, and room for future growth.

"We are excited about moving to a larger, more modern facility, and pleased to be able to provide a training center to offer educational programs to our employees and customers. It's a great location to service the greater Denver area and to become a part of the Aurora community," said Charles Wax, President and CEO of Waxie's Enterprises, Inc.

"Our new location allows us to expand and serve the community for many years to come," said Clint Hunter, Executive Vice-President InterMountain Region.

The first day of business in the new location is scheduled for March 19, 2012.
